From American Union List of Publications.

 IMPORTANT NOTE: If a person—business man, writer, lecturer, traveler, student—is desirous of informing himself interestingly and quickly regarding South or Central America, his special attention and subscription are invited to the four publications, numbered respectively 1, 24, 12, 23 and described in black type. The price of each represents the bare cost of preparation and printing.

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

THE PAN AMERICAN UNION

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

PUBLISHED OR DISTRIBUTED BY THE

PAN AMERICAN UNION

(FORMERLY INTERNATIONAL BUREAU OF AMERICAN REPUBLICS.)

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING ORDERS.

Orders for publications should be addressed to the Pan American Union, Washington, D. C. Payment is required in advance, to be made in cash, money orders, by bank drafts on banks in New York City or Washington, D. C., payable to the order of the Pan American Union. Postage stamps of the United States of America will be accepted for amounts not exceeding one (1) dollar.

All orders for foreign countries should have 20 per cent added to the list price, or, in the case of publications on the free list, 20 cents enclosed, to cover packing and postage.

1. THE PAN AMERICAN BULLETIN (Officially known as the "Bulletin of the Pan American Union"). Carefully illustrated with half-tone illustrations, printed on high-class paper, equally suited to the library table or business desk, giving in attractive, readable and reliable form that class of information, descriptive, commercial, general and specific, which is desired by all classes of persons interested in Pan American progress and development. It is published monthly in four editions—one entirely in English for circulation in the United States and other English-speaking countries; the others in Spanish, Portuguese and French for circulation in Latin America, Europe, etc.

 It should be in the hands of every student, traveler and writer business man, manufacturer, exporter and importer, in every library, and upon the table or desk of all persons watching the progress of the Pan American countries.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES (Pan American Bulletin). English edition, in all countries of the Pan American Union, $2.00 per year.

Spanish edition, in all countries of the Pan American Union, $1.50 per year.

Portuguese edition, in all countries of the Pan American Union, $1.00 per year.

French edition, in all countries of the Pan American Union, 75 cents per year.

All four editions, in all countries of the Pan American Union, $4.00 per year.

An additional charge of 50 cents per year, on each edition, for subscriptions in countries outside the Pan American Union.

- 24. PANAMA CANAL: WHAT IT IS. WHAT IT MEANS. By John Barrett, Director General of the Pan American Union formerly United States Minister to Panama. A handbook of convenient size which gives just the information that the average man wants to know about the Panama Canal, what it looks like, what it leads to, and what it means to the United States and the world. It tells in succinct terms the story of that mighty waterway, its construction and appearance, just how to get there, and what to see at both Panama and Colon and along the line of the Canal. It answers in compact language the majority of questions which are asked, not only by those who, unable to go to Panama, desire to know more about the Canal and what it means, but by those who, in going there wish to learn ahead what they will see or confirm afterwards what they have seen. It is also useful to colleges, schools, libraries and clubs, both for reading and general reference. It is attractively bound in cloth, contains 128 pages, printed on high-class paper with large legible type, 80 handsome half-tone engravings of photographs of the Canal and its surroundings, together with maps, charts, diagrams, distance tables etc. (Third Edition, 1914.) $1.00
- 12. THE PAN AMERICAN UNION—PEACE, FRIENDSHIP, COMMERCE, by John Barrett, Director General.
